Brief Description

This attractive, double fronted, early Victorian property is thought to date from around 1840 and provides spacious living accommodation arranged over two floors with additional cellar storage space below. Set back from the road behind a hedge, the property enjoys large gardens to the rear, with the plot extending to approximately 0.26 acres.

The front door, with stained glass panel, opens to a 28' long through hallway, finished with a superb tessellated tiled floor and wood panelling to the lower part of the walls.

To the left is the main lounge, with bay window and open fireplace. Archways to either side of the chimney breast give access to the dining room behind, another sizeable room with side aspect bay window and additional rear aspect window looking into the enclosed courtyard.

To the other side of the hallway are the sitting room, with 1950's style tiled open fireplace, front aspect bay window and glazed patio doors opening to the side of the house.

Also off to the left is the dual aspect morning room, with brick fireplace surround having attractive built in cupboards/drawers to either side. To the rear of the property, a breakfast room provides space for day to day family meals, having cloaks/WC off and access to both the courtyard and the rear garden. Off this is the modern, farmhouse style kitchen, which features cream units with wooden work surfaces and which, in turn, opens to a utility room.

Upstairs, off the full depth landing, are four double bedrooms with an inner landing leading behind bedroom four to the WC, shower room and separate family bathroom.

Externally, the property has driveway parking for several vehicles, set behind tall wooden gates. The fully enclosed rear garden retains a very private aspect, being mainly laid to lawn with patio seating areas and planted areas of mature shrubs/trees. There is an attached brick workshop and additional, spacious timber shed/workshop.
