Brief Description

The Cottage has an Entrance Porch that opens to the Inner Hall, and to your left is the ground floor Shower Room and to your right is the Living Room which has a bay window making the most of the light and views to the front. The Breakfast Kitchen is a lovely light room, with dual aspect windows and a good range of oak units, a Utility and off the Kitchen is the Lounge - a lovely cosy room with a log burner set in a feature fireplace and another bay window to take in the views. Heading to the first floor and there are three Double Bedrooms, and completing the accommodation is the Bathroom.

The Cottage sits on a very large Garden Plot of approximately 0.55 acres, with a formal Garden, and a Driveway leading down to the Double Garage which has electric doors, light and power. A pathway leads through to the top of the Paddock where there is a further Garage with garden shed, and then the land slopes away to the lower Paddock which has direct access to Wesleyan Road.

Location

Set just off Wesleyan Road, the Cottage is almost equidistance between the villages of Ashley and Loggerheads which offer a Doctors' Surgery, a Primary School, local Shops, Pubs/Restaurants, Chemist, Post Office and a Library.

A more comprehensive range of amenities can be found in Market Drayton approximately 5 miles away. These include schools, specialist and high street shops, supermarkets, restaurants, health and leisure facilities. The larger towns of Nantwich, Stafford, Newcastle-under-Lyme, and Shrewsbury are all within commutable distance.
